Co-operative Heritage Trust bid to the Heritage Lottery Fund

Mervyn

The Co-operative Federation of Victoria is delighted to support your bid to the Heritage Lottery Fund, which if successful will be of immense help in ensuring that not only will the co-operative Movements' rich heritage continue to be safeguarded in perpetuity, but also significantly enhanced.

We understand that the Co-operative College manages both the National Co-operative Archive, and the Rochdale Pioneers Museum on behalf of the Co-operative Heritage Trust.

We also understand that your bid to the Heritage Lottery Fund seeks funding that will enable you to increase the accessibility, both physical and virtual, of the Museum and Archive collections. Increased accessibility and development of learning materials will enhance and maximize the Museum and Archive visitor experience.

Australian co-operators greatly appreciate the work being done by the Co-operative Heritage Trust at the Rochdale Pioneers Museum and National Co-operative Archive that enables visitors to develop a better understanding of the importance of our worldwide, values and member based movement, that after all, has its modern day origins right there in Rochdale.

Yours in co-operation
